“Recovery is not just learned through words”

Singer/songwriter and piano player John McAndrew takes us on a musical journey from self-centeredness to humility, using stories and songs. This journey is a long and difficult one, and an important one in recovery. John's music touches the heart, and then opens our eyes and minds to the possibilities in recovery.

John's presentations have been a large part of many Conferences, Schools, and National events including Utah School of Alcohol and Substance Abuse, Salt Lake City, US Journal of Science, Las Vegas, Mississippi School of A and D, The Tennessee Summit, NAADAC National Conference, Washington, D.C., and The Evolution of Treatment Conference, Los Angeles, CA.

John has worked on a regular basis at several Treatment Centers with programs, presentations, and workshops on Music and Spirituality. Working with faculty, patients, Family Programs, and Alumni events including Betty Ford Center, Cirque Lodge, Sundance, UT-Little Creek Lodge, Hamlin, PA, Manchester, NH, English Mountain Recovery Sevierville, TN, New Found Life, Long Beach, CA, Second Sunday at Hazelden, and Cumberland Heights, Nashville, TN.

“John McAndrew plays to the heart and soul of all of us.”
William C. Moyers, Hazelden Foundation

“The greatest artists are those whose lives are their art. John IS his music - honest, tender, tough. Always an echo of the heartbeat of life. All of John's music arises out of that heartbeat. If he sings about it, it is because people have lived it. More than anything else, John's music is life, listening to itself.”
Earnie Larsen, Author/Motivational Speaker
